

On behalf of the governing board, I would like to thank all the parents/carers who took the time to complete our questionnaire on the School's Aims.

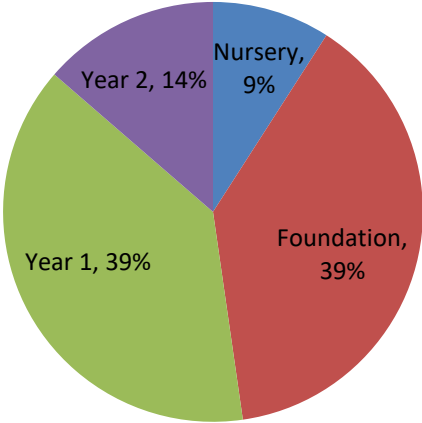

We are delighted to report the overwhelming majority of you agree or strongly agree the school achieves its aims.

Do you think Loughton Manor First School (LMFS) achieves its aims?

The comments you made in response to questions 2 & 3, telling us what you value most about LMFS, will be used to inform strategic and budget decisions ensuring the school continues to meet (and improve upon) its aims and help safeguard those elements most valued by parents/carers.

For your interest, responses were split across the year groups as follows:

Kind Regards.
